When times call for a sports bar, a bucket of beer, and a big game on TV, Mesquite has lots of fun spots. Watch the game at Sports City Café, Knockout Sports Bar,

Bubba's 33, Hooters, Twin Peaks or Buffalo Wild Wings.

Check out a car race at the Southwest's famous dirt track, Devil's Bowl Speedway, holding races March through October. Or, satisfy the competitiveness in you by joining several hundred road-cyclists participating in the Rodeo Road Rally Bike Race charity fundraiser each June hosted by the Mesquite Rotary Club.

For golfers, the Mesquite Golf Club is "Real. Texas. Golf." to its core. An 18-hole, city-owned-and-operated course with 50 years of history and a challenging collection of water features and obstacles, should be in your plan. The Dallas Athletic Club (private) features two courses, the Blue and Gold Courses that were redesigned by Jack Nicklaus in the late 1980s. The courses were originally designed by Ralph Plummer. Nicklaus won the PGA Championship at the Dallas Athletic Club back in 1963.

All in all, if you're looking for a place to have a guys' weekend — somewhere you can enjoy the outdoors one moment, a rodeo or car race the next, and then all the BBQ your belly could ask for —you'd be hard-pressed to find a better place than Mesquite, Texas. 🍷

GIRLS' GET AWAY

When the daily grind is getting you down, there's nothing like a girls' getaway to help you recharge. What's better than sharing belly laughs — and maybe a few glasses of wine — with good girlfriends? There's something special about women traveling together: It's a chance to connect over aspects of life it sometimes feels like no one else understands.

With that in mind, a Mesquite weekend is a good way to escape humdrum routines without breaking the bank. Its location, just 15 minutes east of Downtown Dallas, offers easy access without the big city price tag — savings you can apply directly to a spa splurge or fancy meal. It's also a friendly town with plenty of southern hospitality.

Start the morning off with a walk as you enjoy wildflowers and bluebonnets making a grand entrance in the spring as at Samuell Farm, Opal Lawrence Historical Park, or along the Butterfly Trail. Then head to Town East Mall or Market East for a bit of retail therapy. Enjoy shopping at the Downtown Farmers Market at Front Street Station for local fare from artisans and growers while enjoying live music and food vendors every Saturday, April through November.

Spend your evening with a paint-and-sip class at Mesquite's Painting with a Twist studio, where you'll each get to create your own work of art. Or you can head to the Mesquite Arts Center and attend a theatre show, a concert featuring the Mesquite Symphony Orchestra or the Community Band, or attend artists' exhibitions and receptions.

BJ'S RESTAURANT & BREWHOUSE

One of the best parts of a getaway with your gal pals is that no one has to cook — it's time to kick back and let someone else do the work. Enjoy a Tex-Mex dinner in the heart of Downtown Mesquite at Alejandro's @ Front Street Station, serving unique local dishes that can be enjoyed on a great outdoor patio.

The whole point of traveling with girlfriends is to spend time together, so you don't want to hole up in separate hotel rooms. That's no problem in Mesquite, where a variety of hotels offer suite options so your whole group can share a room — that means more time for watching movies, sipping wine, and catching up until the wee hours.

Stay at TownePlace Suites by Marriott Dallas/Mesquite with its relaxing outdoor patio or Courtyard by Marriott Dallas/Mesquite for its Starbucks coffee and signature cocktails - meaning you'll have no trouble filling any downtime. Both offer pools and fitness centers and rooms are equipped with 42 to 50 inch flat screen TVs, so you can gather around for your favorite flicks. 📺
